Introduction

These Standing Orders are based upon the National Association of Local Council (NALC) model standing orders 2020. NALC model standing orders 2018 for England were revised in 2020.

How to use Standing Orders

These Standing Orders are the written rules of the Kington St Michael Parish Council.

Standing Orders are essential to regulate the proceedings of all Council Meetings. The Council may also use Standing Orders to confirm or refer to various internal organisational and administrative arrangements. The Standing Orders of the Council are not the same as the Policies of the Council but the Standing Orders in places may refer to them.

Local councils operate within a wide statutory framework. NALC model standing orders incorporate and reference many statutory requirements to which councils are subject.

It is not possible for the Standing Orders to contain or reference all the statutory or legal requirements which apply to local councils. For example, it is not practical for Standing Orders to document all obligations under data protection legislation. The statutory requirements to which a council is subject apply whether or not they are incorporated in the Kington St Michael Parish Council's Standing Orders.

These Standing Orders do not include Financial Regulations. Financial Regulations are standing orders to regulate and control the financial affairs and accounting procedures of the Council. The Financial Regulations, as opposed to the Standing Orders of the Council, include most of the requirements relevant to the Council's Responsible Financial Officer. The Financial Regulations are based upon the (NALC) model financial regulations and have been adopted separately.

Standing Orders that are in bold type contain legal and statutory requirements and the Council has adopted the NALC model without changing them or their meaning. Standing Orders not in bold are designed to help the Council operate effectively but they do not contain statutory requirements, so these have been adopted to suit the Council's needs.

For convenience, the word "councillor" is used in the Standing Orders and, unless the context suggests otherwise, includes a non-councillor with or without voting rights.

1. Rules of debate at Meetings

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the Chair of the Meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the Chair of the Meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the Meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion (as amended) becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the Meeting and, if requested by the Chair of the Meeting, is expressed in writing to the Chair.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the Meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the Chair of the Meeting.
- j Subject to Standing Order 1(k), only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the Chair of the Meeting.
- k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the Chair of the Meeting considers this expedient, but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate on the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately before it is put to the vote.
- o Unless permitted by the Chair of the Meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except:
  - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
  - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke;
  - iii. to make a point of order;
  - iv. to give a personal explanation; or

- v. to exercise a right of reply.
- p During the debate on a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the Meeting he is concerned by.
- q A point of order shall be decided by the Chair of the Meeting and his decision shall be final.
- r When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
  - i. to amend the motion;
  - ii. to proceed to the next business;
  - iii. to adjourn the debate;
  - iv. to put the motion to a vote;
  - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the Meeting;
  - vi. to refer a motion to a Committee or Sub-committee for consideration;
  - vii. to exclude the public and press;
  - viii. to adjourn the Meeting; or
  - ix. to suspend particular Standing Order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory or legal requirements.
- s Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the Chair of the Meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.
- t Excluding motions moved under standing order 1(r), the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed 5 minutes without the consent of the Chair of the Meeting.

2. Disorderly conduct at Meetings

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a Meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this Standing Order is ignored, the Chair of the Meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b If person(s) disregard the request of the Chair of the Meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the Chair of the Meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or be excluded from the Meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) is ignored, the Chair of the Meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the Meeting.
